Situated in sunny Ambler Park off the Highway 68 corridor and tucked away down a private driveway, this single-level ranch home features a park-like setting with mature oaks in the front yard and a backyard pool and patio. Located in the popular Washington Union School district near the Badger Hills Trailhead, the home includes three fireplaces, hardwood floors, a large family room, and storage shed. First time on the market in 37 years, it is ready for its new owners to add their personal touches or is an opportunity for a contractor to create something new.
