This rare home seamlessly integrates nature and modern luxury on a one-of-a-kind private 8,300 square-foot lot. With unobstructed views of oak trees and in front of a greenspace park, this home is arguable one of the most private lots with peeks of the ocean from upstairs. Step inside to discover two primary suites, one on each floor, where the upper suite leads to a private balcony and the lower suite is accessible to the backyard. With over $300K in custom upgrades, an open-concept living space with a soaring ceiling that creates a sense of airiness and freedom and the sleek design elements you will never want to leave this oasis. A gourmet kitchen with extended cabinetry and custom quartz island boasts top-of-the-line appliances, perfect for culinary enthusiasts. The home features versatile spaces including 5 bedrooms, a secondary living/loft space upstairs, and a butlers walk-through plus pantry. Owned solar with added additional solar panels. With its unparalleled blend of sophistication and natural beauty, this home offers a lifestyle of elegance and tranquility in a desirable and accessible location on the Monterey Peninsula.
